

Our clients are multiple financial institutions including top tier Investment bank and buy-side institutions. To cope with their rapid expansion, they are looking for high caliber candidate to join their team.

Job Description

- Originate and execute the M&A advisory related transactions
- Manage with the professional parties to execute mandated transactions
- Assist in screening potential target companies and structuring transactions
- Conduct financial analysis, research and due diligence on target companies
- Construct and maintain financial models
- Build relationship with potential clients.
- Prepare marketing pitches and other presentation materials
- Maintain client and transaction database

Requirements

- Degree in Finance, Corporate Finance, Accounting, Business, Banking, Economics or related disciplines
- 3 years' experience M&A advisory
- Strong financial modelling, presentation and Bloomberg skills
- Excellent in computer presentation skills, e.g. Powerpoint
- Excellent Putonghua and English communication skills